Section I Procedure for dealing with Unmasonic Conduct

1 Introduction

It is the duty of all Masons to uphold the concepts of Peace, Love and Harmony and to do all in their power to both defend and spread these principles upon which the Order is founded. A Freemason is required to live his life according to the highest moral standards and to respect his fellow man in all his dealings and conduct.

However, it is accepted that from time to time difficulties or disagreements may arise within lodges or amongst brethren or between Masonic families. In the first instance, such issues should be resolved at lodge level, with the assistance and guidance of senior members of the lodge. In the event that a matter cannot be resolved at lodge level, then it should be referred to Provincial Grand Lodge through communication with the Provincial Grand Secretary.

This document sets out the procedure for dealing with allegations of unmasonic conduct, that is to say, conduct unbecoming a Mason or conduct which contravenes the Laws and Constitution of the Order or the By-laws of Provincial Grand Lodge or any Masonic obligation or conduct which fails to uphold the Ancient Landmarks of the Craft. If all brethren adhere to the tenets outlined in the first paragraph then it should not be necessary to have to invoke this procedure.

Where it is found necessary to invoke this procedure a Provincial Grand Lodge of Antrim (PGLA) Hearing Committee (see Appendix 2) will be set up to exercise all the powers and functions of the Provincial Grand Lodge or the Provincial Grand Lodge Board of General Purposes under Grand Lodge Law 35 and any Grand Lodge Board of General Purposes Policy and Procedures in respect of Charges of Unmasonic Conduct in force from time to time.

(b) A formal complaint from a Lodge or other Masonic body about a Brother or Brethren or another Masonic body

2.3 The Charge must be registered within three months of the alleged unmasonic conduct taking place or becoming known. However these time limits shall not apply to conduct subject to civil or criminal proceedings. (Amended G.L. B.o.G.P. 1.12.16)

3 Action by PGLA on receipt of the Charge

3.1 The Provincial Grand Secretary (hereinafter referred as the Secretary) will immediately acknowledge receipt of the Charge and will also advise the Brother / Brethren / Lodge / other Masonic body who is / are the subject of the Charge (hereinafter referred to as the Accused Party).

3.2 The Secretary will convene a Hearing Committee (hereinafter referred to as the Committee) within twenty-one days of the date of receipt of the Charge, in accordance with the provisions of Appendix 2, and at a suitable venue.

3.3 The Secretary will request the party submitting the form (hereinafter referred to as the Aggrieved Party) to make available all relevant documentation and the names of any material witnesses.

3.4 The Secretary will make available for the members of the Committee copies of the form registering the Charge (hereinafter referred to as the Form) and any other supporting information which may be available at that time.

4 Hearing Committee - Pre-Hearing Assessment

4.1 Where the evidence is clear and obvious (e.g. the verdict of a court of law) the Committee shall proceed to arrange a Formal Hearing.

4.2 Where further consideration is necessary, the Committee shall review the available evidence and shall determine a course of action to either:

4.2.1 Dismiss the charge and recommend exoneration of the Accused Party;

OR

4.2.2 Where the Committee is satisfied that a case has been made it shall proceed to a Formal Hearing of the Charge of Alleged Unmasonic Conduct;

OR

4.2.3 Refer the Charge of Alleged Unmasonic Conduct to be dealt with under the Guidelines for handling Grievances.

4.3 It shall be the responsibility of the Secretary in each case to write to both parties and advise them of the Committee's decision.

5 Hearing Committee - Formal Hearing

5.1 Where the decision is to proceed to a Formal Hearing the Hearing will follow the procedure set out in Appendix 3

5.2 Where the Committee decides to issue a verbal or written reprimand the Chairman shall inform the Accused Party of this at the end of the Hearing. Where the decision is to issue a written reprimand the Accused Party will be informed that this will follow in due course signed by the Secretary on behalf of the Committee.

5.3 In the case that the Committee shall recommend to the Grand Lodge Board of General Purposes the suspension of or expulsion of any Brother, it shall report the recommendation to the next meeting of the Provincial Grand Lodge Board of General Purposes for its information. The decision of the Grand Lodge shall be brought to the attention of the Provincial Grand Lodge Board of General Purposes at a subsequent meeting.

5 The Chairman will then ask the Provincial Grand Lodge, Subordinate Lodge, Brethren or Brother to state their case and give their evidence followed by the evidence of their witnesses (if any) and by any documentary evidence in support. (Any questions will follow).

6 The Chairman will then ask the Accused's Provincial Grand Lodge, Subordinate Lodge, Brethren or Brother, or their representative to answer the Charge, give their evidence, followed by the evidence of their witnesses (if any) and by any documentary evidence in support. (Any questions will follow).

7 It is important for all parties to bear in mind that admissible evidence consists of what has been actually observed or heard by the witness relating to the matter under consideration. Relevant facts appearing in formal records and documents are also admissible. Hearsay, i.e., that which has not been observed by the witness directly but merely heard by him from others, is not usually admissible evidence. These rules of evidence are observed by Judicial Bodies generally to ensure, as far as is possible, a fair hearing and a just decision. The Committee is no less expected to reach its decisions and recommendations upon the same basis.

8 At all times the Chairman will give the parties such guidance as may be necessary as the hearing proceeds and any members of the Committee may ask questions of the parties or witnesses in order to obtain or clarify relevant facts.

9 At conclusion, each party will be given a further opportunity, if they so desire, of adding anything which they consider relevant and helpful to their case, after which the Chairman will ask the parties to retire temporarily whilst the Board considers its findings.

10 Finally, the parties will be recalled and informed of the Committee's findings and proposed recommendation to the full Grand Lodge Board of General Purposes.

11 The hearing will then be closed.

Section J Guidelines for handling Grievances

1 Objective

1.1 The objective of this procedure is to provide every member of a Lodge in the Masonic Province of Antrim who has a grievance against another Brother, Lodge or Masonic body, with the opportunity to have it examined quickly and effectively, and to have that grievance resolved at the earliest practicable moment if at all possible.

1.2 Ideally, Brethren should initially raise any grievances informally with whomever the grievance is held, with a view to finding a solution in the proper context of brotherly love and harmony.

1.3 It should be recognized that issues of unmasonic behaviour or conduct will not, and should not, be raised or dealt with under this grievance procedure. Where a grievant does during the course of this procedure raise such an issue then the procedure must be halted immediately and the grievant referred to the appropriate procedure for dealing with unmasonic conduct.

1.4 Sections 2 and 3 of these guidelines are presented in simplified form as a flow chart in Section 5.

1.5 In Sections 2 and 3 it is expected that at any stage all options for the resolution of any grievance will be explored before proceeding to the next stage.

2 Grievance Procedure for Subordinate Lodges

2.1.1 Should any member/members of a lodge under the jurisdiction of the Provincial Grand Lodge of Antrim (PGLA) have a grievance against another member/members of his/their lodge or the lodge itself he/they should raise the issue with his/their Worshipful Master. The WM should endeavour to secure a fair and equitable solution to his/their grievance within three months of the grievance first being raised formally.

2.1.2 If the Worshipful Master feels that he cannot resolve the grievance himself or has a conflict of interest, it is recommended that the following process should be adopted.

2.2 Stage 1

2.2.1 The Worshipful Master will set up a Lodge Grievance Committee comprising 3 - 5 lodge members designated by the Worshipful Master and chaired by a senior officer of the Lodge to hear the grievance. This committee shall exclude the WM and any member who has a direct interest in or is a party to the grievance

It is the duty of the Lodge Grievance Committee to hear both sides of the grievance and, when in possession of all the facts attempt to resolve the issue in a fair and impartial manner, reporting the outcome to the Worshipful Master and all the relevant parties.

2.3 Stage 2

2.3.1 Should the grievant(s) consider that his/their grievance has not been resolved to his/their satisfaction under Stage 1 of the procedure and all options have been exhausted, he/they may submit an appeal in writing to the Provincial Grand Secretary (PGS) of PGLA setting out the basis of the grievance and grounds for appeal and providing, where appropriate, all relevant documentation or witness statements.

2.3.2 The PGS will convene a PGLA Grievance Committee comprising five members nominated by the PGLA Executive Committee from the Hearing Panel (including a Provincial Assistant Grand Master who will chair the Committee but who will not take part in the decision making process; and excluding other members of the Executive Committee) within twenty-one days of receipt of the written grievance and make available to the Committee all relevant information in his possession. The PAGM shall chair the Committee but shall not take part in the decision making process.

2.3.3 It is the duty of the PGLA Grievance Committee to hear both sides of the grievance and when in possession of all the facts attempt to resolve the issue in a fair and impartial manner reporting the outcome to the PGLA Executive Committee, the aggrieved party and any other relevant parties.

The PGS will convene a PGLA Grievance Committee comprising five members nominated by the PGLA Executive Committee from the Hearing Panel (including a Provincial Assistant Grand Master who will chair the Committee but who will not take part in the decision making process; and excluding other members of the Executive Committee) within twenty-one days of receipt of the written grievance and make available to the Committee all relevant information in his possession. If the grievance is against a Senior Officer of PGLA, then a Senior Officer from a neighbouring Province shall be invited to chair the Grievance Committee.

It is the duty of the PGLA Grievance Hearing Committee to hear both sides of the grievance and when in possession of all the facts attempt to resolve the issue in a fair and impartial manner reporting the outcome to the PGLA Executive Committee, the aggrieved party or parties or lodge and any other relevant parties.
